

Standard #8: Ability to use technology in teaching and learning

(Measures of goal attainment: Computer use through teacher observation, printouts of instructional materials and presentations.)

Elements	Distinguished	Proficient	Marginal	Unsatisfactory	Suggested Measures of Goal Attainment
8.1 Demonstrating the use of computers for purposes such as problem solving, data collection, communication, presentations, and decision making	Skillful in using computers at competency levels II and III. Use of computer for variety of duties.	Adequate skill in using computers. Use of computers for professional duties. Meets all Level I teacher competencies as required by the District.	Limited skill in information management. Uses computers for word processing only. Meets some Level I competencies required by the District.	Minimal skill in using computers. Limited use of computers.	Consistent use of technology for record keeping, data analysis, and managerial tasks.
8.2 Using technology to assist in the development of instructional materials and other teacher applications	Able to develop differentiated instructional materials. Consistently uses AV and computer supported equipment appropriately.	Able to develop instructional materials. Uses AV equipment appropriately and incorporates some use of computer supported equipment.	Limited ability to develop instructional materials. Some appropriate use of AV materials.	Minimal ability to develop instructional materials. Inappropriate use of AV materials.	Samples of created items.
8.3 Insuring that appropriate technology is available in the classroom and designing instructional activities which involve student use of technology	Able to provide instruction in a variety of computer applications. Computers used for a variety of activities and instruction.	Able to provide computer instruction. Computers used for education activities and limited instruction.	Demonstrates limited ability to provide computer instruction. Computers used for recreational activities and basic keyboarding.	Demonstrates minimal ability to provide computer instruction. Computer used for recreational activities only.	Samples of the items that were created, lesson plans.